Mitchell Grossinger Etess

Chief Executive Officer, Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority (MTGA)

Born into a family of hoteliers, Mitchell Grossinger Etess brings literally a lifetime of experience in the hospitality industry to his role as Chief Executive Officer of the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority. Etess joined Mohegan Sun as a member of the casino's pre-opening team in 1996 as Senior Vice President of Marketing. Shortly thereafter, he was promoted to Executive Vice President of Marketing. In August 2004, he was elevated to President and Chief Executive Officer to oversee the overall management and operation of Mohegan Sun, the Northeast's premier entertainment destination.

Two years later, Etess was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority (MTGA), an instrumentality of the Mohegan Tribe who own and operate Mohegan Sun. For several years, Etess held dual roles as CEO for MTGA and President & CEO for Mohegan Sun until 2011, when he decided to focus efforts solely on corporate diversification as CEO for MTGA. In this position, Etess assumes responsibility of the overall management and operation of MTGA's two main properties: Mohegan Sun in Connecticut and Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs in Plains Township, Pennsylvania. Additionally, he evaluates short and long-term business planning and growth for Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority and the Mohegan Tribe as well as business development efforts within the gaming and hospitality industries.

Etess also serves as Chief Executive Officer of the Connecticut Sun, the WNBA's professional women's basketball franchise. He oversees team operations on behalf of the Mohegan Tribe, representing the ownership in all matters pertaining to the day-to-day functioning of the franchise on both the administrative and basketball sides of the organization.

Prior to his career at Mohegan Sun, Etess worked in several high-level marketing positions at Players Island Resort • Casino • Spa in Nevada and Trump Plaza Hotel & Casino in Atlantic City. Before that, Etess was a partner in the advertising and public relations firm of Gordon Etess Associates in Pinehurst, North Carolina after serving as General Manager at CCA/Holly Inn in Pinehurst. Additionally, Etess worked in virtually every capacity — and finally as General Manager — at his family's Grossinger's Hotel in Grossinger, New York. It was here that Etess, who was raised at the hotel, got his early training in the hospitality industry.

A graduate of New York City's Columbia University, Etess resides in East Lyme, Connecticut with his wife Karen.

Bryan Cappelli, a Principal in the Cappelli Organization, has nearly ten years of experience assisting in the development of large scale mixed-use projects throughout the Tri-state region. Such developments include the Ritz Carlton Hotel and Residences in White Plains, NY (total cost: $750M), Trump Parc in Stamford, Connecticut (total cost: $150M) Trump Plaza, New Rochelle (total cost: $130M), and City Center in White Plains, NY (total cost $500M). Mr. Cappelli also serves as Chief Operating Officer of the Cappelli Organization and oversees the management of the company's residential and hospitality portfolio.

Mr. Cappelli received B.S. in Economics with a minor in Philosophy from Duke University.

The following individuals will perform executive management duties for the Manager:

Kevin Brown and Mitchell Grossinger Etess, Managers.

Thomas Burke, President.

Mario Kontomerkos, Treasurer.

David Rome, Secretary.

Their bios follow:

Kevin Brown, Chairman

After being elected to the Tribal Council in his first candidacy, Kevin P. Brown, "Red Eagle" was also selected as Chairman on October 7, 2013, his first day of holding office. He arrives back home to Uncasville, Connecticut after a 25 year career in the United States Army with extensive leadership and organizational management experience in deployed combat environments. Brown also held stateside management of a large Army base at Fort Riley, Kansas. At Fort Riley, his military role was the equivalent of city manager for a small city of 55,000. He is well prepared for his position as Chairman, having led complex organizations of between 150 and 4000 soldiers, sailors, airmen and government civilian employees, and also having experience in managing multimillion dollar operational budgets. Additionally, he has served as an analyst at the Pentagon in Washington DC following attainment of a Master of Science in Operational Research and Systems Analysis at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. Brown also holds a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering from the United States Military Academy, a Master of Arts in Public Diplomacy from Norwich University, and a Doctoral Candidacy in Security Studies from Kansas State University.
