Instructions

New York Racing, Pari-Mutuel Wagering and Breeding Law § 107 sets forth certain restrictions on New York State Gaming Commission licensure of a “public officer,” a “public employee,” or a “party officer.” Those positions are defined in Racing Law § 101 as follows:

1. "Public officer" shall mean every elected state and local officer and every other state and local officer, as defined in section two of the public officers law, whose duties relate to pari-mutuel racing activities or the taxation thereof, who is required to devote all or substantially all of his or her time to the duties of his or her office for which he or she receives compensation or if employed on a part-time or other basis receives compensation in excess of twelve thousand dollars per annum, a member or officer of the state legislature, a member, director or officer of the state gaming commission, or any regional off-track betting corporation, or a member of a local legislative body.
2. "Public employee" shall mean every person employed by the state or any municipality or other political subdivision thereof or by a local legislative body, other than a public officer defined in subdivision one of this section, who is required to devote all or substantially all of his or her time to the duties of his or her employment for which he or she receives compensation, or if employed on a part-time basis receives compensation in excess of twelve thousand dollars per annum, or an employee of the state legislature or an employee of the state gaming commission.
3. "Party officer" shall mean the following members or officers of any political party:
  - (a) a member of a national committee;
  - (b) a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer or counsel of a state committee, or member of the executive committee of a state committee;
  - (c) a county leader, chairman, vice-chairman, counsel, secretary or treasurer of a county committee.
